

Are your Schools and Teachers using too many Point Apps to Communicate with Families Leading to Frustrated Parents?

Fortunately, there is Bloomz, the ONLY One-Stop Solution!

Schools and teachers have had to get used to switching between many different specific-use apps, including School Messenger, ClassDojo, SeeSaw, and more. Needing to learn and utilize so many new apps has been a frustrating experience for both the teachers and the parents.

Bloomz is the unified school - home communication platform that connects districts, schools, and classrooms with parents and students in a secure, social, and private environment. With Bloomz, parents feel more connected than ever to their children's education. By using one easy tool, Bloomz educators and administrators save time and resources while increasing parent engagement and staff efficiency!

“Bloomz has unified all communications at our school, and now with the Coronavirus situation, it made homework submission and student collaboration extremely simple.”

Teri Keeton
Head of School, Cascadia Montessori, WA

“Bloomz delivered over 300% increase in the parental engagement at our school...”

In my 25+ years of being a principal, I have never seen anything like this!”
