| District Communication | + | School Communication | + | Classroom Communication | + | PBIS/ SEL Communication | = | One Unified Solution |

Schools have had to get used to switching between many different specific-use apps, a frustrating experience for both the teachers and the parents.

Bloomz is the unified school / home communication platform that connects districts, schools, and classrooms with parents and students in a secure, social, and private environment. With Bloomz, parents feel more connected than ever to their children's education. By using one easy tool, educators and admins save time and resources while increasing parent engagement.
